

With just a dab...

Owning an Apple™ just got Sweeter!

Introducing Icing, a new unicaser typeface. Designed by Catherine Lou. Icing is dedicated to the childlike candy sweetness of cake icing and accompanying baked goods. Like many other decorative and playful typefaces from Prototype Foundry, Icing lends itself to a tasty variety of applications such as eatery signages and menus. Satisfying your sweet tooth without all the calories; Icing, decorating desserts and documents everywhere! Now available online at fontshop.ca
